Our services

At the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community Health Service (ATSICHS) Brisbane we provide a range of health care services for our community. Our clinic is the first point of contact when you come to see us. You will be assessed and then any relevant referrals made.

Allied health and specialist services

You can access a range of specialist and allied health professionals who regularly work at our clinic including:

- Optometrist
- Physiotherapist
- Eye and ear checks
- Speech therapist
- Paediatrician
- Occupational therapist
- Dietician
- Counselling, psychologist and psychiatrist
- Skin and foot specialists.

Speak with our receptionists to book.

Social health

Our Social Health team offers a variety of services and programs including mentoring, men's and women's groups, mental health advocacy and counselling for social and emotional wellbeing,

School health checks

Our clinic has a number of Aboriginal health workers and a community liaison officer. We are happy to come out to schools in our local area.

Chronic illness

We have care coordinators who can support you and help you manage all your health needs.

Dental

We also provide onsite accessible and affordable dental care. To be eligible for appointments at our dental clinics you must be a regular ongoing patient with one of our ATSI CHS Brisbane medical clinics. The nearest dental clinic is located at Logan.

Child and family health

Health care and support for mothers, babies and young children as well as antenatal care, postnatal care, immunisations and full women's health checks.
